Terms and Conditions

1. All sums due hereunder are payable at Company’s office in Victoria, Victoria County, Texas. If any sum due Company is not received by it within thirty (30) days from the date of Company’s invoice, Company may, at its sole option, charge interest on such past due amount at the rate of 18% per annum. If an account due hereunder is given to an attorney for collection or enforcement, or if suit is brought for collection or enforcement, or if it is collected or enforced through probate, bankruptcy, or other judicial proceeding, then the party responsible for payment shall pay Company all costs of collection and enforcement, including reasonable attorney’s fees and court costs, in addition to other amounts due. Applicant agrees that venue for any lawsuit concerning an account which has become delinquent, will be fixed in Victoria County, Texas.
2. If Applicant becomes delinquent in the payment of any amounts owed to Company, Company reserves the right to change the Terms and Conditions of credit to Applicant at any time at Company’s sole option, without notice, as allowed by law.
3. As permitted by law, if any check given to Company as payment on account is returned unpaid by Applicant’s bank, Applicant will be charged a reasonable returned check fee.
4. Applicant agrees to notify Company of any change of ownership of the Applicant or of any change of financial status which renders or threatens to render the Applicant insolvent and further agrees to be liable for all purposes should the undersigned fail to comply with said notification.
5. Applicant agrees that Company may give information regarding the handling of Applicant’s account to credit bureaus or others who may lawfully receive such information.
6. Company may also obtain information or give information to others when Applicant has: (1) Not paid on time; (2) Company believes there is a question of illegal or improper activity; (3) Company receives legitimate request from a government authority or (4) Company is required to do so by law.
7. Company may request that a new credit application be filed at any time and may terminate credit if such application is not filed.

Applicant certifies that all statements made by Applicant in this application are for the purpose of obtaining credit and are correct to Applicant’s knowledge. Applicant authorizes Company to investigate Applicant’s credit status and to obtain such other information as it may require. This application shall remain Company’s property whether or not it is accepted or approved. Applicant hereby authorizes Applicant’s trade collectors and bank listed above to release any and all information necessary to assist in establishing a line of credit. By signing below, Applicant agrees and acknowledges that Applicant has read and accepts the terms and conditions set forth above.
